4. The proven facts of communication between departed human spirits and mortals
5. Personal responsibility.
6. Compensation and retribution hereafter for all good and evil deeds done here
7. A path of Eternal Progress open to every human soul who wills to tread it by the path of eternal good.

Dear Members,

This year is one third over, and I feel, going well, because of time and effort of many members.

Thanks to all those members and our Committee members who work together to ensure Swan Street Church continues to thrive.

Our programme continues to grow, and expand with new ideas as they are presented to us.

Two workshops are planned for April, be sure to check full details inside.

Later in the year we plan another "Open Day" to welcome the community to see just what we are about. This will be in October, as will our AGM.

Senna and Ellie Knight will be with us 23rd April. 10am-2.30pm giving readings $40 for 30 mins. Bookings 49515045.

On the housekeeping front, April will bring changes to Air/con settings, etc. and the reversal of fans for winter

Now's time to renew your membership, $10 for all members, the best bargain in town! Place your money in envelope with ALL your details on front, and leave at Church. Please don't be tardy, do your bit to make our Treasurer's job go smoothly.

If you are interested in going to our August Retreat, please book now; a $50 non-refundable deposit to be paid on booking. This has become necessary as last year, some members booked early, then changed their minds, and did not cancel. This meant others could not go. So consider it now, and take action.

So much happening, great Speakers booked for Platform, a great year ahead,

Charles Freeman

PRESIDENT

The fellow spirit people of the earth wants to engage our beings by creating an larger energy field necessary to heal this planet of ours. We are struggling to understand why there is not enough cohesion among the peoples of the earth in fact not even enough among the people of a nation as well, so healing is necessary.

COFFEE CLUB REPORT.

Another entertaining afternoon at March Coffee Club meeting. We had a great time sharing our dreams , and perhaps seeking meanings we weren't aware of.

Elfrida shared with us her work on dreams. Her facebook page "Dreams through Angel of Hope" offering interpretation of dreams, has been visited by many. She also brought along samples of her interpretations. Others brought along Dream interpretation books, and ideas, very interesting to share so much knowledge.

As always we accept what is relevant to each of us, think about the ideas and beliefs of others, open our minds to new ideas.

Lots of food for thought! Quite a number have no conscious memory of their dreams, altho we are assured we DO all dream: others have vivid recall of "special dreams" that mean a lot to them.

As always, we shared a tasty afternoon tea, or coffee, and had a great time. Everyone is welcome to attend these afternoons. They bring the opportunity to meet and share with members who attend Swan Street at different Circles or Services.

We have fun, lots of laughs and all enjoy ourselves, while learning new things
The best way to share a Saturday arvo, and all money paid goes to Kids Club, JHH

Thanks to Kry's who created this group and makes sure it thrives.

Our April 16th meeting will be sharing, and perhaps learning Tea Leaf Readings.

Invisible structures are the guides or parameters for being in the material world. The more we align with them, the more we follow our true north - our Soul's direction.

Some examples of Invisible Structures are:

- * Personal conscience / Higher Self
- * Social conscience
- * Truth
- * Fidelity
- * Heredity
- * Illness
- * Culture
- * Religion
- * Personal belief systems
- * Faith
- * Loyalty
- * Relationship chords / family dynamics.
- * Trust
- * Hope
- * Karma
- * Love
- * Ego
- * Soul
- * Spirit World
- * Universe.

Invisible structures form a framework to work within, much like our conscience does when faced with a choice that could be illegal. However, some invisible structures facilitate growth from what could feel like a barrier at first. E.g. fidelity in a relationship. Without it, the relationship becomes hurtful and chaotic, ultimately leading to it's demise. Likewise, truth and loyalty feel like a structure to work within, but ultimately facilitate harmony and growth in relationship.

Are all Invisible Structures helpful?

No. Some examples of Invisible Structures which need to be challenged or pushed aside are:

- * Fear
- * Ego
- * Power lust
- * Manipulation
- * Passive aggression
- * Lies
- * Self sabotage
- * Mental Illness
- * Chemical imbalances
- * Personality Disorders.

All these invisible energies play havoc in our lives and must be noticed, and challenged, in order to be healed. How do we notice these invisible structures in our lives?

Synchronicity (meaningful coincidence), karma, relationships and meditation.

Life itself, mirrors to us what we need to observe and learn from. It is up to us to take personal responsibility for the Invisible at work in our lives, and find our Soul's true North.

Also, the role of the Medium or Lightworker is to make the Invisible, visible in the material world. We are the instruments of service, we channel an Invisible energy force, turn it into a language, and give it to the people in order to facilitate healing.

This coming month, let us all take note of the Invisible structures at work in our lives, and work to heal what needs to be healed.

God Bless!

Just realised not enough jokes! People tell me they enjoy the jokes more than any other item. Suitable ones are not always easy to find!

-A doctor remarked on his patients, ruddy, very red complexion.

"I know," said the patient, "it's from high blood pressure and it's from my family."

"Your mothers side or fathers side?" questioned the doctor.

"Neither, my wife's side."

"What do you mean?" the doctor said, "That cannot be. How can you get it from your wife's family?"

"Oh yeah, definitely," the patient responded, "you should meet them sometime!"

I was sitting in the waiting room for my first appointment with a new dentist. I noticed his DDS diploma on the wall, which bore his full name. Suddenly, i remembered a tall, handsome, dark-haired boy with the same name had been in my high school class some 30-odd years ago. Could he be the same guy that i had a secret crush on, way back then? Upon seeing him, however, I quickly discarded any such thought. This balding, gray-haired man with the deeply lined face was way too old to have been my classmate. After he examined my teeth, I asked him if he had attended Northman high school.

'Yes. Yes, I did. I'm a thunderbolt,' he gleamed with pride.

When did you graduate?' I asked. He answered, 'in 1975. Why do you ask?' You were in my class!', I exclaimed.

He looked at me closely. Then, that ugly, old, bald, wrinkled faced, fat-ass, gray-haired, decrepit son-of-a-bitch asked, 'what did you teach ?

Common Sense

Many articles have been written pertaining to the spiritual way of life, but very little has been said about common sense, which is of Divine Inspiration. We do need meditation and prayer very much to bring us to the inner awareness of finding God within, but the quality of common sense has its part to play in our lives also.

Those souls who have overcome the darkness and found the light and dedicated their lives to the service of their fellow men, while being Divinely led and guided, know that common sense—brought into play by an intuitiveness—is a factor into directing energies into the constructive channels necessary for the advancement of all. This quality which is taken so much for granted, is not always given its rightful place in thinking of matters of the Spirit.

It is quite as precious as “peace of mind”; many are never blessed with this sensibility, others wait most of their lives to attain it, for it is a characteristic mark of God Himself, who created the Cosmos.

It is not at variance with spiritual thinking as some may think, for the wise virgins used common sense when asked to give the oil in their lamps away to the foolish virgins who had not prepared for the coming of the Lord.

Maurice Maeterlinck tells us: “Let us not follow the example of the lighthouse keeper who was said to have distributed to the poor in the neighbouring hamlets the oil destined for the lighthouse lamp, thereby leaving himself without the supply for the safety of the ships which were in his keeping.”

However small your lamps may be, never give away the oil which feeds it, but only the flame which the oil feeds. One may be accused of casting one’s bread sensibly, or with common sense, on the waters, but if it were all foolishly cast away, there could arise a greater need, when one would be then in the position to give no bread at all.

This is not in keeping with Jesus’s teachings, for in one particular instance He instructed His disciples, after the feeding of the five thousand, to go around and gather up all the leavings.

So let us pray that we may be blessed with this attribute of common sense, given to us through the intuitive power of the Spirit.

One of Life's Lessons

While preaching about forgiving ones enemies, the preacher asked for a show of hands of those who were willing to forgive their enemies. About half of the congregation raised their hands. The minister continued his lection and again asked for a show of hands. This time, 80 percent of his congregation raised their hands. Not giving up, the minister continued for fifteen more minutes. When he again asked for a show of hands, all members—except one—raised their hands.

“Mr. Jones,” asked the minister, “are you not willing to forgive your enemies?”

“I don't have any.”

Mr. Jones, that is very unusual. I know you are 86-years-old. Would you please come down to the front and explain to all of us how you have lived so long without making a single enemy in the world?”

Mr. Jones teetered to the front and briefly explained, “Its easy. I’ve outlived every one
