Our Philosophy is based on Seven Principles

(With liberty of interpretation)

1. The Fatherhood of God.
2. The Brotherhood of Man.
3. The immortality of the soul and its personal characteristics
4. The proven facts of communication between departed human spirits and mortals
5. Personal responsibility.
6. Compensation and retribution hereafter for all good and evil deeds done here
7. A path of Eternal Progress open to every human soul who wills to tread it by the path of eternal good.

Dear Friends,

As I am writing this the wild westerly winds are wreaking havoc outside, but thankfully I am warm and safe.

This feeling comes not just from a cosy and secure home, but the knowledge that I am safe and protected, living as we do on the path of understanding and belief, strong in the knowledge that "his will be done" and the problems we may have at this moment will vanish, or be settled, just as the many problems we have had to handle in the past have already been taken care of.

Faith is a wonderful thing, and when it is backed up by numerous examples in our daily lives, we can only appreciate just how close Spirit is, and the part it plays in all our lives. Perhaps, although we are aware of this, we forget to remember, and be thankful for the role Spirit plays, Perhaps this reminder can suggest that each day, during meditation, or just a private quiet time, we each remember, and say a silent "thank you".

This past month has brought many gifted speakers and mediums to us, and Robyn has another busy month planned for June. So many differing points of view are presented, and we are such a diverse group, it is impossible to agree with each and every speaker, and point of view presented. The fortunate thing is that visiting speakers and mediums present us with ideas and knowledge, we have the opportunity to make up our own minds.

Carmel Colquhoun

Speakers this month

Welcome back Rev. Meg, one of our most regular speakers.

Adam Price returns. Adam told us how his faith and music had helped him through serious illness. His CD is good value, I do enjoy it.

Charles Freeman is a long time Church member, serving on committee many years, and attending 7pm service most nights. Adept at readings.

Karen Burge returns, a Spirit and energy healer, reading and much more.

Karen is responsible for production of that small booklet seen around town, listing all things Spiritual.

Dave Everett shares his knowledge of kinesiology, stress relief and pain management. Dave a welcome, regular visitor.

Rev. Mark Penkala channels, works as Spiritual healer and meditations.

Bits and Pieces
How To Stop Church Gossip

Mildred, the church gossip, and self-appointed monitor of the church's morals, kept sticking her nose into other people's business.

Several members did not approve of her extra-curricular activities, but feared her enough to maintain their silence.

She made a mistake, however, when she accused Frank, a new member, of being an alcoholic after she saw his old pickup parked in front of the town's only bar one afternoon.

She emphatically told Frank (and several others) that everyone seeing it there would know what he was doing!

Frank, a man of few words, stared at her for a moment and just turned and walked away. He didn't explain, defend, or deny.

He said nothing..

Later that evening, Frank quietly parked his pickup in front of Mildred's house, walked home and left it there all night..

(You gotta love Frank!)

This email was forwarded to me, I asked the sender if she would like to have it printed in newsletter, and she said "yes." However she requested we use her name as "Sunny."

OAlva,

Just wanted to say a "Thank you" to every person that gives of themselves out on the platform on a Sunday.

The applause may not be loud enough at times but I am sure all of us that sit in the audience are openly or secretly comforted or inspired when the passages are read, when the group meditation happens and the stories from the lives of the guest speakers are given, not to forget those people that make the services all come together.

And I wanted to say a special thank you to Asunta. I have no idea what it could be like to face a life threatening disease in my life but to hear Asunta share what is helping her cope and get through with smiles and not anger or bitterness is a big act of courage and graciousness. I don't know if I could do that. I'd probably wallow in much self pity.

Asunta, be good to yourself.

With best wishes, Sunny.

Great feedback for Asunta, and indeed all those members who take the platform.

Annie, 6 years old, gets home from school.

She had her first family planning lesson at school.

Her mother, very interested, asks;" How did it go?"

"I died of shame!" She answers !

This article submitted by Maya Rutland, who will be on the platform later this year.

As a student of the science of Palmistry for many years I have been able to travel to many countries, sharing my knowledge in readings, inspirational talks and workshops on the subject. Palmistry allows me a unique ability to blend knowledge of Palmistry, Psychology and Psychiatry with personal experiences.

It is an established fact that people's personality traits as well as their emotional and physical wellbeing are all reflected in the shape, size and markings on their hands. Using Psychic abilities, Palmistry and Tarot Cards in combination, it is possible to help people discover their true potential by giving them an insight into themselves.

"Your life can be whatever you want it to be. Just be 'YOU', the best 'YOU' that you can be, and that's how you'll find contentment, peace and happiness," I believe

"So many people these days are searching for a more meaningful life. However, most search outside of themselves instead of looking within. We are all unique, and that's what makes each and every one of us so special. When we know ourselves and learn then we are able to really get the most out of our lives."

I am quite excited to be on the Church Platform in August, giving you an insight into my abilities as a Palmist and Psychic.

Rather than doing individual readings where only a handful of people benefit, will ask each of you to look at your own hands as I explains what certain things mean.

"I guarantee, you'll be amazed at what your hands reveal about YOU," says Maya.

This is a reminder to all, to please check when you leave Church, that the deadlock has been engaged on the back door. Apparently it is not totally reliable, so we are all reminded to set the deadlock on the door while inside the kitchen, then lock screen door on leaving.

This means that should someone gain entry, as in the past, they cannot remove items, such as our TV etc., as they would be unable to open the door from inside.

If you are not sure just how to do this, please ask for help. I am sorry if my explanation is a bit sketchy. The best way is to get someone to show you.

I wish you Enough!

Recently I overheard a Father and daughter in their last moments together at the airport. They had announced the departure.

Standing near the security gate, they hugged and the Father said, 'I love you, and I wish you enough.'

The daughter replied, 'Dad, our life together has been more than enough. Your love is all I ever needed. I wish you enough, too, Dad.'

They kissed and the daughter left. The Father walked over to the window where I was seated. Standing there I could see he wanted and needed to cry. I tried not to intrude on his privacy, but he welcomed me in by asking, 'Did you ever say good-bye to someone knowing it would be forever?'

'Yes, I have,' I replied. 'Forgive me for asking, but why is this, a forever good-bye?'

'I am old, and she lives so far away. I have challenges ahead and the reality is - the next trip back will be for my funeral,' he said.

'When you were saying good-bye, I heard you say, 'I wish you enough.' May I ask what that means?'

He began to smile. 'That's a wish that has been handed down from other generations. My parents used to say it to everyone..' He paused a moment and looked up as if trying to remember it in detail, and he smiled even more. 'When we said, 'I wish you enough,' we were wanting the other person to have a life filled with just enough good things to sustain them.'

Then turning toward me, he shared the following as if he were reciting it from memory.

I wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun even more.

I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive and everlasting.

I wish you enough pain so that even the smallest of joys in life may appear bigger.

I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting.

I wish you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess.

I wish you enough hellos to get you through the final good-bye.

He then began to cry and walked away.

They say it takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, a day to love them; but then an entire life to forget them.

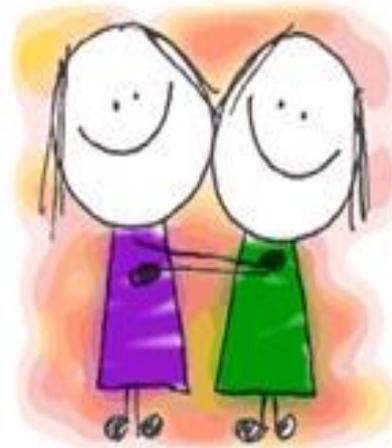

To all my friends and loved ones, I wish you Enough ! Take time to live!!

This was an email from Carmel John.

This is probably a good time to thank those members who send me emails that can be used in newsletter. Regulars like Robyn, Carmel and Jo are much appreciated. Must admit not all of them are suitable, but they all give me a good chuckle, and laughter is good for you, isn't it?

TEN WAYS TO LOVE

1. Listen without interrupting (Proverbs 18)
2. Speak without accusing (James 1:19)
3. Give without sparing (proverbs 21:26)
4. Pray without ceasing (Colossians 1:9)
5. Answer without arguing (Proverbs 17:1)
6. Share without pretending (Ephesians 4:15)
7. Enjoy without complaint (Philippians 2:14)
8. Trust without wavering (Corinthians 13:7)
9. Forgive without punishing (Colassians 3:13)
10. Promise without forgetting (Proverbs 13:12)

Spiritfrom John Calli's website channelling Chief Joseph Group

Many humans think of heaven as a place. Just as those who believe in hell think of it also as a place. But where do you think those places would be? They are certainly not physical places because you cannot take your physical bodies with you after you die.

Let us say this: Heaven is whatever you want it to be. After all, you do create your own realities while you are on your physical earth in your physical bodies. So too do you create your experiences after physical death. Life and death — they are part of the same spectrum of your eternal selves. You come and go throughout eternity. Heaven is not a reward you earn for living a good life. Nor is hell a punishment for your sins. We'll go so far as to say heaven and hell do not exist — at least as you think of them.

The closest you can come to heaven, whatever, you imagine it to be, is when you leave your physical bodies. You then return home to your spirits. That is heaven. But you can also get glimpses of heaven on earth when you are aligned with your spirits — for example, through meditation. As for hell, that also is your own creation. But you can experience it only while in your physical bodies, when you become misaligned with your spirits. That is hell.

You can live in heaven or you can live in hell. It's your choice.

This item seems to restate the information given to us by Louise Hermann when she addressed us last week. Louise proved to be a very interesting speaker, and stayed at Church till 6pm with us. She donated her "Team Spirit Trilogy" to our Library, and I guess Jo, our librarian will have a list of those wanting to borrow it.. It comprises two books and a video of Louise working. If you missed seeing Louise, (altho the Church was full)she is next at Wallsend, 22nd June at Wallsend Pioneers Hall, crn Newcastle rd. and Cowper Streets. Donation $10 All to be seated 7.15pm sharp .More details on her website www.louisehermann.com Had a phone call from Barbara Hermann, Louise's mother, asking about our Church. Apparently she was often at our Church in times past, and delighted in playing the organ. At that time, Louise would wait for her Mum in the car. Barbara has since rang Carmel Colquhoun, I believe.

9th June we are fortunate to have a visit from Susanna Steel, to hold a Mediumship demonstration. Susanna holds a number of these demonstrations in various suburbs, as a regular thing, and has agreed to attend the Church for this demonstration. of proof of survival, Doors will close at 7pm. Donation $10 Further night is planned for 21st July. So check July newsletter.
