Greetings all, Members and Friends

Welcome to our new Committee for having been duly elected on the 14th October at our Annual General Meeting. A special welcome to our new committee person, Sue Linsell.

Our Committee are made up of dedicated people choosing to give back to their church and to you it's members by way of service and all on a volunteer basis. So please remember this if you are finding fault in anything.

Our Past Secretary, Alva Macey is making an excellent recovery from her recent illness. Please keep sending your prayers and thoughts to her and all others mentioned in our Healing Book.

Christmas and the end of this year is coming fast upon us and I would like to take this opportunity to give a big thanks to one and all who have helped in a large way or just a small way in keeping our church running smoothly. As parents we understand the challenges that arise each day in keeping our family activities running smoothly and so it is with our church which is a much..much larger family so credos to all those family members who give of their time, energy and commitment. Bless us one and all.

The Law of Love is the law of Life. Departure from it leads to disintegration.
A firm adherence to it leads to regeneration.
Only Truth quenches untruth; Love quenches anger.
Self-suffering quenches violence. It is Eternal rule, not for saints only, but for all those who observe it. Maybe few, but they are the salt of the earth. It is these who keep society together, not those who sin against Light and Truth .

SUNDOWN AT KIRRAWEE NSW

It , is early in the evening, just around dusk, when the spirits come out to play.
You can feel their gentle touch on your face, you can feel them touch your hair.
They are the things, that let you know that they are there.
They come to comfort us, and guide us through the night,
If they were not there, you could be in for a big fright.
A little boy wanders trough, looking for someone to play,
]He does not realise, that his body has gone away.
He tries to make contact, with those, who he knows are clear, they comfort him,
As little children do, but they know not where to send him.
He wants to go back, to where spirit never ends,
Where infinite beauty transcends, time and space.
He waved a goodbye, ad he left the room, and was looking forward,
To visiting the stars and the moon.
So as all of us leave this earthly plane, we search the stars in heaven,
And sing love songs in the pouring rain.
He has crossed over now, to be with his clan, and is filled with love
And joy, to see his mum, his dad, and his gran.
For the circle of life is the most splendid thing of all, and to be in it,
Makes one feel a thousand feet tall.
We have now come to this stories end, so stand up and hug, everyone as a friend.
For love does not choose which way to go, as it only knows how to continually flow.

Two immigrants from Africa arrive in the United States and are discussing the difference between their country and the U.S. One of them mentions he's heard that people in the U.S. Eat dogs, and if they're going to fit in, they better eat dogs as well. So they head to the nearest hot dog stand and order two 'dogs'. The first guy unwraps his, looks at it, and nervously looks at his friend. "Which part did you get".

Pecans in the Cemetery

On the outskirts of a small town, there was a big, old pecan tree just inside the cemetery fence. One day, two boys filled up a bucketful of nuts and sat down by the tree, out of sight, and began dividing the nuts.

Óne for you, one for me. One for you, one for me' said one boy....Several dropped and rolled down toward the fence.

Another boy came riding along the road on his bicycle. As he passed, he thought he heard voices from inside the cemetery. He slowed down to investigate. Sure enough, he heard, 'One for you, one for me. One for you, one for me...

He just knew what it was ... He jumped back on his bike and rode off. Just around the bend he met an old man with a cane, hobbling along.

'Come here quick,' said the boy, 'You won't believe what i heard! Satan and the Lord are down at the cemetery dividing up the souls.

The man said, 'Beat it kid, can't you see it's hard for me to walk. 'When the boy insisted though, the man hobbled slowly to the cemetery. Standing by the fence they heard, "One for you, one for me. One for you, one for me."

The old man whispered, 'Boy you've been tellin' me the truth. Let's see if we can see the Lord..

Shaking with fear, they peered through the fence, yet were still unable to see anything... The old man and the boy gripped the wrought iron bars of the fence tighter and tighter as they tried to get a glimpse of the Lord.

At last they heard, 'One for you, one for me. That's all... Now let's go get those nuts by the fence and we'll be done." They say the old man made it back to town a full 5 minutes ahead of the kid on the bike.

CAUSE and EFFECT

There is a cause for every effect, and an effect to every cause. Thought is causative. It has much to do with the state of our circumstances.

The nature of our thoughts largely determines the character of our life. If our thoughts are of a Heavenly nature, then our outward life tends, in course of time, to correspond with the nature of Heaven.

The only way by which Heaven can be enjoyed in this life is to live our life in harmony with Heaven, particularly our inward life of thought, will and emotion. We create our own disorder through the disharmony of our will, thought and emotion. Through bringing our inward life into harmony with the Divine, order and perfection become increasingly manifest in all our affairs.

The Rainbow Bridge

There is a bridge connecting Heaven and Earth. It is called the Rainbow Bridge because of its many colours.

Just this side of the Rainbow bridge there is a land of meadows, hills and valleys with lush green grass.

When a beloved pet dies, the pet goes to this place. There is always food and water, and warm spring weather.

There old and frail animals are young again. Those who are maimed are made whole again. They play all day with each other.

But there is only one thing missing—they are not with their special person who loved them on Earth.

So, each day they run and play until the day comes when one of them suddenly stops playing and looks up. The nose twitches, the ears are up, the eyes are staring, and this one suddenly runs from the group.

You have been seen, and when you and your special friend meet, you take him or her in your arms and embrace! Your face is kissed again and again and again and you look once more into the eyes of your trusting pet.

Then you cross the Rainbow bridge together, never again to be separated.
